

BARTLETT PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT MEETING ROOM USE POLICY

The Bartlett Public Library District (BPLD) provides the use of its meeting room as an additional service under conditions established by the Library Board of Trustees. The following rules apply to groups using the meeting room.

1. All groups shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless BPLD, its officers, agents, and employees from and against any and all claims, suits, actions, of any kind, arising and resulting and accruing from any negligent act, omission, or error of the group resulting in or relating to personal injuries or property damage arising from the group's use of a BPLD meeting room.
2. Permission to use the meeting room does not constitute an endorsement of an event or the group's policies or beliefs by the Bartlett Public Library District. Likewise, neither do any Bartlett Public Library District advertisements for meetings held at the Library imply BPLD endorsement of a group, its policies, or its beliefs.
3. Events and groups using the meeting room may not interfere with the regular operations of the BPLD. The Bartlett Public Library District reserves the right to stop events that are disruptive to Library operations.
4. No group may use the Library as its official mailing address or telephone contact. The Library cannot provide storage for property owned by any organization using the room. Library personnel may not carry supplies and equipment to or from the meeting room. Groups must provide their own help for this purpose. If an activity generates more trash than fits in the trash containers provided in the meeting room, the group is responsible for the removal of the excess trash.
5. Library personnel must have access to the meeting room at all times. The Bartlett Public Library District retains the right to monitor all events held on the premises to ensure compliance with Library regulations.
6. Adult (age 21 or older) supervision must be provided for groups including young people less than 18 years of age. There must be at least one adult to supervise every fifteen young persons. For example, a group of 40 young people requires at least three adult supervisors.
7. Light refreshments may be brought into and served in the meeting room, but must remain in the meeting room. Alcoholic beverages are not allowed. Kitchen facilities will not be available to groups using the meeting room.
8. No fundraising or sales presentations are allowed.
9. No fees may be charged for entrance or participation. Exceptions, approved in advance by the Library Director, may be made for non-profit educational institutions providing short-term classes, institutes, workshops, etc.

10. Only free standing displays may be used: nothing shall be taped, stapled, glued, or otherwise affixed to the walls, windows, doors, ceilings, floors, tables, chairs or other structures, fixtures, or furniture of the BPLD.
 11. Persons using the meeting room are subject to all BPLD rules governing patron behavior.
 12. It shall be the sole responsibility of the group to adhere to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations. Any costs associated with compliance are solely the group's responsibility.
 13. Groups are responsible for returning the room to the condition in which they found it.
 14. The meeting room shall be used solely for programs of an educational, cultural, or civic nature or similar uses consistent with the Library's mission. By way of example only, the meeting room may not be used for social gatherings such as showers, birthday parties, dances, etc.
 15. Permission to use the meeting room may be revoked and/or withheld from groups causing a disturbance, failing to leave at the scheduled time, damaging the room or other BPLD property. Applicant and the group he/she represents agree to pay for any special maintenance for and/or damage to the meeting room or other BPLD property related to meeting room use, as determined by BPLD.
 16. Groups using the meeting room may not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, creed, national origin, religious belief, or handicap, against any person requesting admission to the event.
 17. Failure to comply with any of the foregoing policies may result in immediate revocation of permission to use the meeting room and/or rejection of future applications for use of the meeting room of the BPLD.
 18. The Bartlett Public Library meeting room provides two large screen monitors which can be used to display laptop slide show or computer desktop presentations to a variety of group sizes. Groups are welcome to use and operate these monitors with a Library supplied remote control which is available for checkout. No other library audiovisual equipment in the meeting room is available for public use. However, groups are welcome to bring their own audiovisual equipment for use in the meeting room. Staff may be able to offer limited assistance with equipment that people using the room supply themselves. Available monitor ports are: VGA, HDMI, RCA (A/V), and 3.5 Mini jack (audio).
 19. Individuals using the meeting room will be billed for damages to furnishings and/or equipment and lose the subsequent right to book the room.
